

All Hallows Catholic School and Sixth Form College

Teacher of Religious Education / Humanities

All Hallows is an Ofsted outstanding school in all areas with progress that puts us in the top 100 schools in the country.

Ofsted says:

- “Students work hard, concentrate in lessons and participate enthusiastically”
- “Very harmonious and respectful relationships between students and between students and staff”.
- “Students’ progress is outstanding”

We offer a supportive and friendly environment where students are exceptionally well behaved and keen to learn.

Learning and teaching is at the forefront of everything we do and as a teacher at All Hallows you will be able to develop your professional skills within your strong departmental team.

All staff are highly valued and are offered an extensive CPD package with a relentless focus on continually developing and improving expertise, and striving for excellence both in the classroom and beyond.

We wish to appoint a well-qualified, ambitious teacher to the above post. Applications welcomed from NQTs.

All Hallows benefits from very strong transport links to London and the South East and you will have access to numerous sporting facilities after school hours including a swimming pool, fitness room and dance studio.

If you are considering applying to teach at All Hallows you would be very welcome to visit the school, alternatively apply via the attached application form.

We recommend early applications as the school reserves the right to close the advert prior to the stated deadline date

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. The successful candidate will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS check and uphold the Catholic Ethos of the school. Closing date 12th November 2018

Telephone 01252 319211

Website: www.allhallows.net

Email: recruitment@allhallows.net